New services appeal to airport's business travellers

East Midlands Airport

Derby is a business city that trades daily with the rest of the world and home to global brands such as Rolls-Royce, Bombardier, Toyota and Citigroup. Derby's nearest airport and Marketing Derby Bondholder, East Midlands Airport, provide extensive air links to many European and worldwide destinations and is a popular airport for business travel with 25% of the 4.9million travellers using the airport for business purposes.

The airport has recently launched two new products designed for the business customer. The new Express Lane product is a dedicated channel to enable you to fly through security and reach the departure lounge quicker. Simply purchase your ticket from the Express Lane desk located in the departures hall and make your way to the security search area. For further information, see the website.

A new Meet and Greet car parking service is now also available where passengers are met in the Short Stay car park, have their keys taken for their car which is then parked in one of the secure airport long stay car parks and, on your return from your trip, is then back in the short stay car park waiting for collection. See the website for more information.

Free films for Derby businesses at QUAD

Katapult, the marketing agency behind the QUAD brand, is hosting free films and events for local businesses every Wednesday at QUAD who respond to the weekly email.

Each Wednesday there is a scheduled screening and informal networking in the relaxed café bar before and after the film. Films hosted so far include Gran Torino, Synecdoche New York, Looking for Eric, Let the Right One In, Terminator III and the new Harry Potter.

If you are a business person working in or around Derby and would like to be notified of the movienight screenings, please email movienights@katapult-studios.com. There are limited places available each week, so tickets will be allocated on a first come first served basis.
